Fall Continuing Education Event

Healthy Boundaries 201- Beyond Basics, A Course for Clergy and Spiritual Teachers with

Rev. Ed Poling

Rev. Ed Poling is an ordained minister in the Church of the Brethren currently serving at Hagerstown Church of the Brethren. Reverend Ed has his BA from Pennsylvania State University and Master's from Bethany Theological Seminary. He has served several congregations in MAD and So. PA districts as well as outdoor ministries in Atlantic Northeast district at Camp Swatara and trustee at Bethany Theological Seminary. Ed and his wife Marge have two grown sons, and three grandchildren.

Goals

To increase awareness of the need for healthy boundaries in the clergy-congregant or teacher-student relationship. To provide clergy and spiritual teachers with guidelines and suggestions for developing appropriate boundaries and necessary self-care strategies. To illustrate the impact of appropriate vs. inappropriate boundaries in promoting effective ministry.
